

Education First Compact

2023-24 Speaker Series

For nearly 20 years, the Philadelphia Education Fund's Education First Compact has provided a FREE and open forum for education stakeholders to hear from the region's leading experts on education matters impacting Philadelphia's students and educators.

Join us each month, from September through June, for dialogue and discussion. To register, visit <https://philaedfund.org/programs/education-conversations/>.

Date	Title
September 12	Back to School with Philadelphia Superintendent Dr. Tony Watlington
October 5	The Next Mayor: What Lies Ahead for Philly Schools
November 2	Pennsylvania's Vision for Educating the Commonwealth's Students – From Kindergarten through College - BEING RESCHEDULED
December 7	Improving Student Attendance through the New ABCs – Agency, Belonging and Connection
January 11	Tackling The City's Talent Pipeline Challenge: The Role of Education Systems
February 1	Are We There Yet? The Mechanics and Politics of Arriving at Equity in Education Funding
March 7	The Lingering Presence of COVID – Addressing the Delayed Social and Emotional Development of Students
April 4	Revisiting College Admissions: In the Wake of the Recent Landmark SCOTUS Decisions
May 2	Harnessing the Power of We: The Opportunity in Collective Impact for Philadelphia's Students
June 6	Meeting the Needs of Philadelphia's Students: FY24 Budget Overview

Note: Schedule and topics are subject to change.

Interested in supporting Education First Compact? Become a voluntary subscriber.

Visit: <https://edcompactsubscription.eventbrite.com>